

Reverse Osmosis Construction – June 2025

In June 2025, construction materials and equipment continued arriving and being utilized on the construction site, which included the drill rig, additional excavators, a bulldozer, and cranes. Pier holes were drilled, forms were installed, and piers were set and poured. The intermediate granular activated carbon (GAC) system was disassembled and will be utilized in other treatment processes. Excavation for the process building continued.

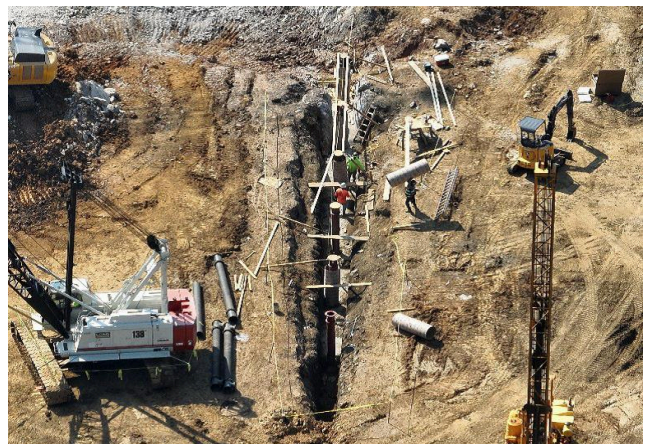

Drill Rig for Piers

Finished Pier

Piers Formed, awaiting Concrete

Row of Piers

Aerial View from South

Aerial Process Building Excavation

Ceramic Micro Filter (CMF) Area

Process Building Excavation

Process Building Excavation

Intermediate GAC System Removal

Aerial View from North